

Public Workshop

To discuss possible uses of two Metro Transit properties

King County Metro Transit will host a meeting on June 15 to gather public input about possible future uses of two properties in the North Lake Union area (see map). Both properties are currently occupied by Metro Transit facilities. Some possible future uses include public use, private use, non-profit use, and use related to waterborne transportation.

When: Tuesday, June 15, 6-9 p.m.

Where: B.F. Day Elementary School, 3921 Linden Ave. N (1 block west of Aurora Avenue N and 1 block north of N 40th Street; free parking in school parking lots).

Schedule:

6-7 p.m. — open house (view displays and talk with King County staff)

7-8:30 p.m. — presentation and community workshop

8:30-9 p.m. — wrap-up

If you have questions or comments about this meeting, please contact:

Patrick Duhon, Community Relations Planner

King County
Department of Transportation
KCS-TR-0824
201 S. Jackson St.
Seattle, WA 98104-3856

Voice: 206-263-3424

TTY Relay: 771

E-mail: patrick.duhon@metrokc.gov

40320sm.qxd 1202M

Department of Transportation
Community Relations and Communications
KSC-TR-0824
201 S. Jackson Street
Seattle, WA 98104

FIRST CLASS MAIL
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
SEATTLE, WA
PERMIT NO. 6966

Public Workshop — To discuss possible uses of two Metro Transit properties